

San Marino International Extradition Treaty- Supplementary with the United States

October 10, 1934, Date-Signed

June 28, 1935, Date-In-Force

STATUS:

Convention signed at Washington October 10, 1934, supplementing treaty of January 10, 1906. Senate advice and consent to ratification was given on February 6, 1935. It was Ratified by the President of the United States on February 25, 1935. It was Ratified by San Marino on April 10, 1935. Ratifications were exchanged at Washington on June 28, 1935. Entered into force on June 28, 1935. It was Proclaimed by the President of the United States on July 2, 1935.

The United States of America and the Republic of San Marino, being desirous of enlarging the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the Convention concluded between the United States of America and San Marino on January 10, 1906, with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a Supplementary Convention for this purpose and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

The President of the United States of America, Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America; and

The Captains-Regent of the Republic of San Marino, J. Robert Hewitt, Consul General of the Republic of San Marino in the city of New York, and Count Alfonso Facchetti Guiglia, Counselor of the Republic of San Marino;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered 1 to 14 in Article II of the said Convention of January 10, 1906, on account of which extradition may be granted, that is to say:

15. Crimes and offenses against the laws for fraudulent bankruptcy and those of fraud or breach of guaranty by a banker, agent, factor, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, director or officer of any company or corporation or by any person having a legal fiduciary position.

ARTICLE II

The present Convention shall be considered as an integral part of said Extradition Convention of

January 10,
1906, and Article II of the last mentioned Convention shall be read as if the list of crimes therein contained had originally comprised the additional crimes specified and numbered 15 in the first Article of the present Convention.

The present Convention shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their respective constitutional methods, and shall take effect on the date of the exchange of ratifications which shall take place at Washington as soon as possible.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the above-named Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention in the English and Italian languages and have hereunto affixed their seals. DONE, in duplicate, at Washington this 10th day of October, 1934.
